

The 5th instalment of the Ipswich Britannia Senior Super Series of Table Tennis takes place this Sunday at Britannia Table Tennis Club in Ipswich, which is next to Thurston Ormiston academy in Defoe road.

It has been moved forward from the 25th of February due to a clash with the World Cup team Championships in London.

The top four seeds are exactly as the last event in January, with Norfolk's Christopher Cockburn the top seed, Lewy Carby from Great Yarmouth at two, Cambridgeshire's Steven Gray three and Suffolk's Andrew Doshier four, other players who could challenge for a semi final place are Ryan Moore, Gary Cattermole, Sylvain Floury and Yuri Zhoubrioushiy.

Groups followed by second and possibly third stage matches will preside and the action starts from 11 am.

Spectators are welcome and the entry is free and the doors are open from 10 am.
